

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to FORCE their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is unbelievable -- a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Is this not a violation of FCC rules? If not, WHY not? This "documentary" is NOT a PSA, is it????

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. If the FCC doesn't intervene on behalf of the PUBLIC INTEREST, then I will lose all respect for the FCC. With a degree in journalism, I have always been a big advocate for the press. I'm beginning to change my opinion EXACTLY because of this sort of thing. This is practically election tampering, if you ask me. Or are so many many "Bushies" at the FCC these days that it cannot remain neutral???

Please protect us. It is your job.
